TEAM ORAL PRESENTATION AND TEAM PAPER PROJECT:
Intercultural Communication Case Study Comparative Analysis: How women from the Middle East and Latin America are portrayed in different mass media communication messages?

Objective: Apply Chapter 8 concepts with an Intercultural Case Study Comparative Analysis: How women from the Middle East and Latin America are portrayed in different mass media communication messages?

Format: A 15 to 30-minute ICC (Intercultural Communication) presentation + a 5 to 7-page team paper, typewritten, well-organized, professionally polished, creative, and well-proofread paper. Double Space / Arial or Times New Roman font / 12 font size.

Due date: Monday May 9, 2016. No exceptions!

Graded points: 80 points, (30 pts. Team presentation / 50 pts. Team Paper submitted in MOODLE. Bring one copy to the classroom the day of your presentation)

This assignment asks you to apply two to three key ideas from Chapter 8 (on outgroup biases), and to analyze and compare 2 case studies where these concepts are clearly identified. For example, you might select concepts such as ethnocentrism/ethnorelativism development, stereotype/counter stereotype messages, prejudice, racism, hate crimes, etc. Your case study selection will consist of two current intercultural news stories where you can identify outgroup biases against woman: one from to the Middle East and one from Latin America.

This assignment is one in which you will work in a small group. A group can be constituted with a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 4 students. How well you perform in this assignment depends on how well you work collaboratively with your group. TEAM PRESENTATIONS are as follows:

1. Adhere strictly to the 15-30-minute timeline of delivery;
2. Pick two to three meaningful concepts from Chapter 8;
3. Discuss in your team how to present the two to three concepts in an educational, interesting, and “memorable” manner; Work your presentation in Power Point.
4. Design two objectives you want to accomplish in your presentation;
5. Everyone needs to play a vital role in the ORAL TEAM PRESENTATION;
6. Present your two current intercultural news stories in a creative manner. The mass media communication messages to be considered are: news with photos in newspapers or magazines; movies; or videos presented as part of news programs or internet version.
7. Be original and creative and MINDFUL - utilize each individual talent and diversity to contribute to a mindful communication process and a creative communication product.

ENJOY!!!

WRITTEN TEAM ASSIGNMENT—Suggested format

COVER: Cover page with clear title, team members’ names, instructor’s name, submission date.

I. INTRODUCTION: In this section you will begin by defining the basic concepts of culture and Intercultural Communication.

II. CULTURAL BACKGROUND: In this section you will present the general characteristics of both cultures: Middle East and Latin American. Include a subsection on the cultural expectations and roles for woman in both cultures. Compare both. Remember to use concepts learned and discussed in class for example: Cultural values dimensions: Identity-Collectivism or Individualism; Cultural Value patterns; Power Distance: Verbal/ High or low content communicators /and Nonverbal Communication Styles, etc.

III. RATIONALE: Articulate the importance of your selected ICC concepts. Briefly, define key terms and explain the theory or concepts via your own summary and interpretations.

IV. ICC DEBRIEFING: Use the concepts you have selected to debrief the news stories that you choose. How can you identify the ICC concepts in the news story? Compare the identify concepts in both cultures.

V. CONCLUSIONS: Discuss any insightful ideas you have gained on the topic via working with your team members. Conclude with 3 – 4 new points that move beyond the chapter materials—based on working with your teammates via your collaborative and case study analysis.

VI. REFERENCES: Minimum 5 resources. APA style.
VII. APPENDICES: Separate handouts, figures, artwork, photos, ICC effective communication guidelines, etc.

NOTE: All team members are expected to participate fully in the writing of the paper. All members of the team will receive the same grade. The instructor, however, will reserve the final right and decision to adjust the group grade versus the individual grade (if needed—with compelling reasons from other team members). The oral presentation will be graded on a 30-point scale, and the written paper will be graded on a 50-point scale.

Grading criteria:
A coherent Power Point Presentation + well-crafted news stories presentation (ORGANIZATION)
Informative + clear explanations and conceptual connections among concepts, (FLOW)
Creative, relevant, thought-provoking, or emotionally challenging + meaningful facilitation (ORIGINALITY)
Effective presentation format and delivery—oral and written (EXECUTION)
Team collaborative spirit and coordination (POSITIVE SYNERGY)

*The basic idea and instructions for this Final Research Paper and Team Oral Presentation was taking from the authors of the Textbook use in the course Understanding Intercultural Communication by Toomey, Stella Ting & Leeva C, Chung. The adaptation for the topic and the guidelines for the paper and presentation are mine.

FINAL PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Preparing for your presentation:

- Organize your ideas effectively and in a logical order. Use some information from your background section.
- Be sure the presentation is not less than 15 minutes, not longer than 30 minutes. To get it right, PRACTICE.
- As a group presentation, be sure that each person speaks an equal amount (approximately).
- Use visuals (drawings, models, maps, PowerPoint images, photos of the females of your Middle East and Latin America Country, your print or video news story)
- Be careful to balance your presentation. The visuals should enhance and illustrate what you are saying.
- You may use a few notes, but you should not be reading directly off a paper or the slides. That makes it look like you don’t know your subject. The notes should remind you of the order of presentation or of a few key facts, but you need to be comfortable with your topic.
- Practice effective speaking: enthusiasm, clear speech, formal language, confidence. (Practice these skills with a friend or in front of a mirror; you will need the skills in the future.)
- Dress professionally.
- How you will be evaluated: See the judging sheet on the next page.
- If you are absent during the day of your presentation you will missed 30 points of this section.
